Lenten Penitential Confessions

The parish' Lenten Penitential Day for Confessions with visiting priests is this Thursday, March 23rd
8:30 – 10:00 a.m. and 5:00 – 6:30 p.m.

BEFORE GOING TO CONFESSION, PLEASE REMEMBER

Church tradition and psychology tell us that Confession is not only a powerful Sacrament, but also good for the soul. It lifts burdens, relieves guilt, forgives sins, and starts us on a new path of this spiritual journey.

Five conditions for a good Confession

- 1. Examination of Conscience: An examination of conscience is prayerfully thinking about what we have purposefully said or done, that hurts others and our relationship with the Lord our God. For your preparation, use a good examination of conscience based on the Ten Commandments (they are on the counters at the entrances of the church if you don't have them).
- 2. Sorrow for your sins against God and Others.
- 3. Resolve to sin no more.
- 4. Confession of our sins: We need to confess all our sins, without concealing any of them, including mortal and heavy sins, otherwise the Confession is not valid.
- 5. Penance: A penance is a special task we are given by the Priest to help repair the damage our sin has caused to our relationship with God or others. Penance may include doing something nice for someone we have wronged, taking up a "good habit", or saying a special prayer.

Every Friday Evening during Lent
Stations of the Cross and Celebration of the Mass

Every Friday during Lent will be held
Stations of the Cross
beginning at 6:30 p.m.
followed immediately afterwards
by Celebration of the Mass

Almsgiving for Ukraine

Remembering everything being given up during Lent, and offering the result as an Alm to help those in Ukraine continues to be sought after and asked for. Whatever you have to offer as a result of your abstinence is a fragrant offering to those who live in situations of suffering and loss, right now, with no choice given as to whether they would choose to do so or not.

Please drop your envelope simply marked as 'Ukraine Alm' into one of the locked boxes at the entrances of the church.

The collected offerings will support parishes and communities in Ukraine. (It would mean supporting not only those parishioners, but extending to hospitals and other individuals there.) God bless you.

First Reconciliation: the Children who have been preparing for it, will receive the Sacrament of First Reconciliation, this Wednesday, March 22nd, beginning at 6:30 p.m.

Confirmation Classes: to be held this Tuesday, March 21st, at 6:30 p.m.

Rest in Peace - Moira Correia-Kilmartin, Niece of Joseph Lobo; Iris Correia, Sister of Joseph Lobo.
