PASTOR'S EASTER MESSAGE

Christ is Risen and He is alive among us. It is He who is our hope for a better future. We say with St. Thomas, "My Lord and my God!" May we again receive in our hearts the beautiful yet demanding words of the Lord, "If anyone serves me, He must follow me, and where I am, there shall my servant shall be as well." (John 12:26) United to Him and ready to offer our lives for our brothers, let us become Apostles of peace and messengers of joy that no longer fear pain.

The last few months have brought us some stability and rest. We had a beautiful and peaceful Christmas. Yet, there remains the terror and worry of the reality of war – in Ukraine and elsewhere, economic crisis, and the world situation.

We live in a world where fear and terror are not to be unexpected to strike at any time. Because of this we need Jesus who brings Hope, the hope that comes from the Victory of Life over Death. Not only do we need Him, but we too must also become messengers of Peace, Hope and Courage. We need to share our Faith. We must provide help and support to those who seek peace in the world, within families, and in their hearts.

Thank you to those who during Lent offered Alms for our brothers and sisters in Christ in Ukraine or Salvatorian mission works.

We ourselves must remember and convey Christ's message to others, the message that true peace, strength and hope (just like goodness) come only from the Risen Jesus Christ. Let us remember and share his words:

"Peace I leave with you; my peace I give you. I do not give to you as the world gives. Do not let your hearts be troubled and do not be afraid." (John 14:27)

There are good things to be thankful for here. Our parish is growing, we have more parishioners. Recently we celebrated the first Confessions of our First Communion children and their parents. I thank the parents of these children for a wonderful example of faith by entering the Sacrament of Reconciliation. Now with hope we are looking forward to the Sacraments of Confirmation and First Communion.

I would like to wish all parishioners and visitors to our parish a very happy Easter, and hope you get to spend it in the company of those you love.

We do not know what the future is but let us believe that whatever will happen it will be for our own good. My dear parishioners, do not be afraid! Jesus is Risen!

Fr Robert SDS.

Because family matters!
