Resurrection of Our Lord Parish
•ANNOINTING OF THE SICK• MASS,
Saturday, September 16th, (9:00 a.m.)

Prayerful Respect Inside the Church: We are so blessed in our parish because before each Mass, there are people dedicated to praying the Rosary. After the Rosary is prayed, some are here for personal prayer, some are arriving from the outside world to come down and pray in silence. This is why we are happy to keep silence before Mass and generally. We as Catholics show by example how to behave in church (God's holy temple) especially in front of those who haven't yet joined and don't understand what the Church, tabernacle, and Jesus' presence means.

Have you ever heard of a chancel lamp? It's that lantern or candle in a church that tells us that Jesus is present in the tabernacle. You might think it was developed as a kind of signal to let people know that they need to be reverent when they enter a church, but there is a lot more to it than this.

In every church, the chancel lamp is there to tell you that Jesus is present. It's there to remind you of His faithfulness—when you feel vulnerable, anxious, joyful, contented, or scared. It's there to tell you that Jesus is really and truly present, hidden inside the tabernacle, just as He is present and hidden in the depths of your heart.

Of course, we know that God is always present to us. Our Bible says so; our catechism says so; even our own memory of past events says so. Still, His presence in the Blessed Sacrament stands above all of these assurances. Visible yet hidden, understandable yet mysterious, He is inviting you to come sit with Him. Can you take a few moments out of your day and respond to His invitation? Go spend time with Him; He just may have a special message for you.

Here it is...the real reason why Catholic churches have always been so quiet: not because we have nothing to say to each other, but because we are meant to be attentive and listening to the One whom we all long to speak with, Jesus our Lord.

Because family matters!
