OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST, KING OF THE UNIVERSE Thirty-Fourth or Last Sunday in Ordinary Time

The Last week of the Liturgical Year is devoted to eschatological themes: Christ the King will restore all creation and restore his kingdom to the Father. The risen people of God will rejoice in a new heaven and a new earth. "There, with the whole of creation, freed from the corruption of sin and death, may we glorify you through Christ our Lord." (EP IV)

First Reading

Ezekiel 34.11-12, 15-17

As for you, my flock,

I shall judge between one sheep and another.

Psalm 23.1-3a, 3b-4, 5, 6 (R.1)

R. The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.

Second Reading

1 Corinthians 15.20-26, 28

Christ hands over the kingdom to God the Father, so that God may be all in all.

Gospel

Matthew 25.31-46

The Son of Man will sit on the throne of his glory, and he will separate people one from another.

(Ordo – Liturgical Calendar 2022-2023)

ADVENT

Prepare the Way of the Lord

When the Church celebrates the liturgy of Advent each year, she makes present this ancient expectancy of the Messiah, for by sharing in the long preparation for the Saviour's first coming, the faithful renew their ardent desire for his second coming. By celebrating the precursor's birth and martyrdom, the Church unites herself to his desire: "He must increase, but I must decrease." (CCC 524)

Please pray for all the children who with their parents have almost completed the first half of their sacramental preparation for First Reconciliation and First Communion as well as for Confirmation with this portion of the program to draw to a close at the end of the current Liturgical Year. Also give thanks to God for our parish Catechists who have devoted their time to teaching the Candidates. As well, the parents of the Candidates have devoted and put time aside to attend while the children are at classes and Fr. Robert has given his time to the parents of these families while the children are attending classes. We are very blessed and ask for your continued prayer support. Thank you.
