If there is someone you would like to have remembered at the Mass please let us know. As well, there will be a basket (to place names in from over the years past) and they will be included in prayer at this Mass as well.

The Beautiful Testimony of the Reasons why our Children being prepared for the Sacrament of Confirmation want to be Confirmed

TO the community of resurrection of our lord parish, i want to receive my confirmation-im ready to confirm on my own the baptisml promises made for me as a baby. I an choosing to follow Jesus. Luka

I would like to be part of the church by accepting the sacrament of confirmation so I can deepen my relationship with God, and with the Resurrecum Parish. Getting accepted would be an honor. I am so blessed with everything. ❤️ -Anikka

I would like to confesse because I would like to help other. And to receive all the sacrament. And to spread the gospel of the lord. And to follow the sacrament and to not miss one of them .
That's Why I want to confesse
From: Neyessa

AS I Prepare to take this step in my Faith, I'm truly grateful for the love, guidance and support I've received along the way, My confirmation is a promise to grow closer to God and to live with faith, kindness, and Purpose. Thank you for being part of this special moment In my life.
With love.
Sophia.

I want to be confirmed because i want to receive deep connection to God, to be strengthened by the holy spirit, and become a More Mature. Irvine

I want to get confirmed because I want to talk to God more and get closer to Him. I want to get closer to Him because I think that God is a big part of our lives. Mateo

Conformation

I know I should be here is because of confirmation. And I am Proud of being a christian catholic. And at one point I will be doing confirmation which is now. And I Should do the confirmation because God told his people too and I am a true Proud Christian. And confirmation is on one of The 7 Sacraments.And I am happy to be a Christian. And I love god and I want to be close with him. So I will be doing confirm-ation. And that is why I should be here!!!!
Selihom

I was born on Saint Thérèse the Little flower's feast day. She taught me that I can become holy by doing small, ordinary things in life with love and trust in God. God can use me and my weaknesses to lift me up and help me on my road to sainthood. I want whatever I do to have meaning. I want to keep growing in faith and understanding, so I decided to receive the Sacrament of Confirmation. Thank you, Aracelis.

PROMISES and VOWS

PROMISES: by our Baptism, Confirmation, Matrimony or Holy Orders, we live our life according to a promise we have made to God. Prayer, alms-giving, or pilgrimages (as well as other personal devotions) are also ways to make a promise to Him. Holding true to our promises made to God is a sign of the respect we owe to God who is faithful to us.

VOWS: To take a vow means to empty ones' self as fully as they are able following Jesus' self-emptying for us as our Saviour – and for us apart from anything else which our means would allow. (There is nothing in us that can satisfy a Vow - it is only by the hand of God.)

There is no monetary value to a Promise or a Vow. They are commitments freely made by us to God to give the things of this world up and live for Him.
(CCC; 2101-2102-2103; Num. 7:21)

REMEMBRANCE DAY MASS: Since many people cannot make it to the commemoration on Parliament Hill on November 11th, at 11:00 AM, a Remembrance Day Mass will be celebrated here at Resurrection of Our Lord Parish, on Tuesday, November 11, at 11:00 AM. Veterans are invited to the Mass wearing their uniforms and medals. Thank you to all Veterans who served our Country and protected us so that we can live in peace. We love you!
